

Doerr Center for Social Justice Education and Research

St. Louis University School of Social Work

presents:

A Nonviolent Response to Terrorism

Fr. Louie Vitale, OFM

Monday APRIL 27, 2009—7:00-9:00pm

Busch Student Center Ballroom 173

Fr. Louie will explore alternatives to our current policies of killing and torturing terrorists, thereby inciting others to join terrorist organizations. He discusses how nonviolence can be used as a much more effective response to terrorism. He will also make connections to torture and the movement to stop torture training at Ft. Huachuca and the SOA/WHINSEC.

Responses by:

- Michael Braeuninger,
American Red Cross
(International Services)
- Tarah Demant,
Amnesty International
- Kristin Bulin, Center
for Survivors of Torture and War Trauma

Doerr Center for Social Justice
Education and Research

3550 Lindell Blvd.
St. Louis, MO 63103

Phone: 314-977-2734

Email: socjust@slu.edu