level: Lally Room; in the Cardinal Ritter Senior Complex, 7609 Watson Rd., St. Louis, MO.

Our Presenter: Diane Tomkinson, OSF

Diane Tomkinson, OSF is passionate about retrieving and passing on the Franciscan Charism. She places special focus on the message of the theology, spirituality and praxis of early Franciscan women for Franciscans, the Church and our world today. Diane is a Sister of St. Francis of Philadelphia, with a Doctorate in historical theology and a Master's degree in Franciscan Studies. Her ministry developed from pastoral ministry, to teaching undergraduate theological and religious studies. She is currently the part time Director of Formation for her congregation, and missioned as live-in caregiver for her parents.

Theme

This God, our God
uncreated God incarnate highest and perfect good –
is total LOVE
and in the same way
loves totally
and wants to be totally loved, therefore
wants all God's children totally transformed
into God
through love.”

Angela of Foligno (d.1309)
Instruction XXXIV

Description:

Angela was an upper class wife and mother in late 13th century Foligno, near Assisi, who at midlife began a spiraling journey of conversion that transformed her into a Franciscan woman of profound mystical prayer and theological insight.

Come explore what the “experience and teaching” of this early member of the Franciscan Third Order offers to Franciscans today.
